THIS WEEK

Red Wednesday – 18 November 2026

Remembering Christians Who Suffer for Their Faith
Red Wednesday is a day when people around the world come together to remember Christians who are persecuted, discriminated against or denied the freedom to practise their faith. Churches and other buildings are often illuminated in red, symbolising the blood of those who have suffered or died because of their belief in Jesus Christ

The day is promoted by the international charity Aid to the Church in Need (www.acnireland.org) which highlights the suffering of Christians in countries where religious freedom is threatened.

Red Wednesday is not simply a day to remember those who suffer; it is also a call to prayer, solidarity and action. As Christians, we are reminded that we belong to one worldwide family of faith. When one part of that family suffers, the whole Church is called to stand alongside them.
